The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT ALLOWING RETAIL STORES AND SHOPS TO OPEN ON THANKSGIVING DAY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 136 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section sixteen and replacing it
2 with the following:-

3 All stores and shops which sell goods at retail may be open at any time on Sundays and on Memorial Day, July
4 Fourth, Labor Day and Thanksgiving Day, but no such stores and shops may be open on Christmas Day if Christmas
5 occurs on a Sunday. The performance of labor, business and work directly connected to retail sales on these days
6 shall also be allowed. Stores and shops allowed to open under this section may sell on these days all types of goods
7 and foodstuffs which may lawfully be offered for sale in the commonwealth other than alcoholic beverages. To the 8 extent that this section is inconsistent with section 6 or any other general or special law, this section shall control.

9 The provisions of law inserted into clause (50) of section six of this chapter by chapter five hundred and fifty-six of 10 the Acts of 1982 pertaining to voluntariness of work and time and one half payments shall apply to any such work 11 performed on said days. The terms "Memorial Day," "July Fourth", "Labor Day" and "Thanksgiving Day" shall 12 mean the legal holidays on which said days are celebrated in accordance with clause eighteen of section seven of 13 chapter four of the General Laws.
